Program Description:

Effective motions and applications advocacy is critical to your success as a litigator. Attend this year's Courthouse Series and bring your motions and applications advocacy to the next level. Dynamic live and video demonstrations will showcase tips on persuading the trier of fact, the policy and strategic considerations involved in complex motions and applications, and how to gather the evidence that you need to win.

Topics Include:

- Summary Judgment Motions – When and How to Bring Them
- Application for Judicial Review of a Public Authority's Decision
- Motion for Disclosure of Digital Evidence

The Advocates' Society, in conjunction with The Middlesex Law Association, invites you to join us for this year's Courthouse Series: Complex Motions and Applications.
