

Mentoring Dinner 2018

What you didn't learn in law school about Being an Effective Advocate!

Thursday, March 22, 2018, 6:00pm to 9:00pm
The London Club, 177 Queens Ave.

Keynote Speaker: Regional Senior Justice Thomas
Program Chaired by: Jacob Aitcheson, Lerner LLP

accredited

This program contains 0.75 Professionalism Hours and is eligible for up to 2.0 Substantive hours.

If you have been practising law for 10 years or less, please plan to attend the 2018 Mentoring Dinner. Take advantage of this unique opportunity to share dinner with your colleagues, senior lawyers and hear tips on how to be an effective advocate including topics such as identifying & focussing on relevant issues, being prepared, effective oral and written advocacy, and civility, from the recently appointed Regional Senior Justice.

During the roundtable discussion, you will be introduced to a variety of different topics on being an effective advocate. You will also have an opportunity to ask questions of his Honour after the key note address.
