

Mentoring Dinner 2019

What you didn't learn in law school about EVIDENCE!

Tuesday, February 26, 2019, 5:00pm to 8:00pm
The London Club, 177 Queens Ave.

Cocktail reception: 5:00pm to 5:30pm, Keynote presentation: 5:30pm to 6:00pm, Dinner: 6:15pm to 8:00pm

If you have been practising law for 10 years or less, please plan to attend the 2019 Mentoring Dinner. Take advantage of this unique opportunity to share dinner with your colleagues, senior lawyers and hear tips on "What I didn't Learn in Law School about Evidence!" The Honourable Mr. Justice Marc A. Garson will share tips from the Bench on "Top 10 Evidentiary Pitfalls", including prior inconsistent statements, experts, opening statements, casebooks and documents.

During the roundtable discussion, you will be introduced to a variety of different topics on evidence. The mentors will switch tables after each course, so you will have a chance to meet 6 mentors and hear different perspectives.

Keynote Speaker: The Honourable Mr. Justice M.A. Garson
Program Chairs: Jacob Aitcheson and Jennifer Butkus

This program contains 0.25 Professionalism Hours and is eligible for up to 2.5 Substantive hours.

Mentors & Sponsors to Date:

Gord Cudmore of Cudmore Law

Joni Dobson of Legate Personal Injury Lawyers

Julie Lee of Lee Family Law

Nancy McAuley of Lerner LLP

Jim Mays of Siskinds LLP

Mary-Anne Strong of Beckett Personal Injury Lawyers LLP

David Williams of Harrison Pensa LLP

Bill Woodward of Dyer Brown LLP

Jim Zegers of Zegers Law PC