

The Seventh Annual Practice Management Seminar

Wednesday, November 22, 2017, 1:00pm to 3:30pm

This program contains 2.5 Professionalism Hours.

1:00 to 1:45pm

Bencher Update

Hear the latest hot issues faced by lawyers and the Law Society of Upper Canada from our local bencher

Michael Lerner of Lerner's LLP

1:45 to 1:55pm

Refreshment break

1:55 to 2:40pm

Courageous Conversations

- What is a crucial conversation?
- What is needed for a courageous conversation?
- Understand it starts with a common goal
- Explore what keeps us stuck
- Determine how to best have a courageous conversation
- Tools and techniques you can apply right away to both personal and professional life

Wendy Thompson of Right Brain Teams

2:40 to 2:45pm

Refreshment break

2:45 to 3:30pm

Coaching and Your Law Practice

- What is coaching in relation to legal practice?
- How coaching works
- What is effective coaching?
- How coaching can benefit both the Coach and the Participant
- Intro to the LSUC's CAN program

Stephen Ahad, Counsel, Law Society of Upper Canada

Laura Camarra of Camarra Law

Deadline to Register:

Friday, November 18, 2017 by 4:00pm

How to register:

Please complete the registration form and return it with payment to the Middlesex Law Association